The Chalice Arts Series

Celebrating Our Fourteenth Season

September 27, 2009 Chuck Gillespie and Friends 3:00 pm

Tenor Chuck Gillespie shares his vocal talents as he performs a variety of sacred and secular tunes. He will be joined by other musician friends in an afternoon of marvelous music.

November 1, 2009 Missa Jazzis 3:00 pm

Northwest's young adult choral group Psoulstice and Christian Alternative Rock Band Psoular Power will offer a variety of musical literature including the Ohio premiere of Joe Utterback's newest larger work Missa Jazzis. The program will celebrate the lives of the saints on this All Saints Sunday.

December 13, 2009 Joy to the World 3:00 pm

The spirit of the holiday season comes to life through this Christmas program presented by the choirs of Northwest. Let every heart prepare him room.

February 21, 2010 The Seven Last Words of Christ 3:00 pm

The Chancel Choir, members and friends of Northwest will be joined by members of Advent Lutheran Church for this well known and beloved sacred cantata by Theodore Dubois.

March 19&20, 2010 The Song of Mark 7:30 pm

The gifted NWCC Youth Choir presents this Marty Haugen musical for the first time at Northwest. The meaning of discipleship is a central theme throughout the Gospel of Mark presenting a Jesus who is constantly in action. The Song of Mark seeks to convey this sense of dramatic action by using quick, sparse dialogue, and songs which divide the story into a number of episodes.

April 25, 2010 The Rainbow Express 8:30 and 11:00 am

The sanctuary of Northwest Christian Church will once again come alive as the elementary age Kids of the Kingdom present this musical by John and Phyllis Miller. They will lead both worship services on this special Sunday morning.
